SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1876. The Presidential Election.

Up to going to press we had received no official report as to the President and Governor's election, and as it seems to be a close run in both instances we refrain from giving our opinion as to the probable result.

The County Election.

We give below the official result as to the number of votes polled in this County, and congratulate our citizens upon the good order and peaceful election. This County will far excel any ner, will also remain on duty at the other county in the State in her law abiding citizens, and we sincerely hope that peace and quiet will forever reign in our midst.

CLOSING THE CENTENNIAL.

the Exposition.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6. To-day's admissions to the Centennial Exhibition are reported at 77,-957, of which 1,304 were at half-fee. The grand total of cash admissions to date foot up: At 50 cents, 6,738,402; at 15 cents, 738,004; total, 7,676,406. The total cash receipts at the gate were $3,553,702 50.

The poultry show closed this evening, and the work of removing the specimens will begin to-morrow, when the list of special prices will be announced. Company M, of the Third United States Artillery, which has been on duty at the Exhibition since the opening, will remain at the grounds until the 17th inst., when one half of the force will be returned to their posts. The others will remain until all the Government exhibits are removed. The detachment of the Engineering Corps, Ordnance, Signal Service and Medical departments, comprising sixty-five men, all under the command of Captain Wargrounds until the exhibits in their charge shall have been returned to Washington. As the lease of the international stock yard has not yet expired, and as the vard is of no further value for exhibitors, who have had their packing boxes burned, the latter will therefore be able to manufacture new cases under cover without being compelled to build sheds for the purpose. The large amount of surplus lumber remaining in the stock yard is to be utilized in the erection of a grand stand for the accommodation of participants in the closing exercises on November 10th, as it has been determined in case the weather ctions, to hold the ceremonies he op a air. This stand is to a cupy the open space on the west s ac of the Main Puilding, and will have a scatting capacity of about three thous ad. It case of rain the ceremonies will take place in the Judge's that Instead of the Main Building, as was ori inally proposed. The Presideat, is Grant, Secretary and Mrs Fish wil arrive on Wednesday to participate in the closing ceremonies on Friday.

Election Excitement-Good Programme for the Close-Sudden Death.

PHILADELPHIA, November 9.- An immense crowd of citizens are in Philadelphia, principally visitors at the Exhibition grounds to-day. The election excitement was manifested, and telegrams from Florida upon the Presidential issue were read from the telegraph office on the Exhibition grounds to a boisterous crowd. A Mess Esling, of this city, fell dead For Clerk Court-George Boliver, with heart disease while passing 4448; J F Robinson, 2792; H Riggs, through Main Hall, A grand programme of closing the exercises tomorrow has been arranged, including salutes, music, &c. It is now announced that in the matter of the Centennial awards the The Arrangements for the Last Day of commission has fully decided to return to the original system devised by Mr. Beckwith, of New York, and give to each successful exhibitor, with the medal and diploma, the report of the judges, signed by them. With the exception of such corrections of errors in phraseology as are made in the necessary process of editing, and in a few cases the striking out of matter in the nature of advertisements inserted in violation of the instructions to the judges, the reports will be furnished to exhibitors just as writ-
